

SAINT VINCENT
COLLEGE

announces the second annual

John Deely/Jacques Maritain Lecture

Friday, March 22, 2019

Professor Paul Cobley, Ph.D., F.R.S.A.

JOHN DEELY ON HUMAN UNDERSTANDING

12:00 noon

Luparello Lecture Hall

(Please join us for Lunch at 1:30 p.m., Metten Dining Room)

Paul Cobley, Professor in Language and Media, Middlesex University, Distinguished Visiting Professor, Nanjing Normal University, is the editor of Realism for the 21st Century: A John Deely Reader (2009). Friend and collaborator of John Deely for nearly 20 years, he also edited the special issue, Deely in Review, for Chinese Semiotic Studies (2016). He is the ninth Thomas A. Sebeok Fellow of the Semiotic Society of America, the Secretary of the International Society for Biosemiotic Studies and President of the International Association for Semiotic Studies.

Kindly respond by March 18, 2019
(724) 805-2901 or lisa.poole@stvincent.edu

John Deely/Jacques Maritain Colloquium

AGE OF RELATION—AN INVITATION TO TRANSDISCIPLINARITY:
COMMUNICATING BETWEEN AND WITHIN THE DISCIPLINES

9:00—11:50 a.m.
Luparello Lecture Hall

Farouk Seif, Ph.D.

THE BRAID OF DESIGN, SEMIOTICS, AND LOVE: TOWARD
TRANSDISCIPLINARITY
IN A TRANSMODERN WORLD

Donna West, Ph.D.

THE PROMISE OF THIRDS IN VISUAL IMAGES, FROM THE PERSPECTIVE OF PEIRCE AND MARITAIN

Joseph DeChicchis,
Ph.D., F.R.S.A.

FAMILIAR AND FOREIGN

Gary Shank, Ph.D.

QUANTITATIVE/QUALITATIVE IN TRANSDISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVE